

In its raw state, clay is of little value. But when we add water, we create usefulness and beauty.

Pottery is one of the oldest human inventions, associated with civilizations and cultures worldwide.

Wind your way through our Pottery Trail.

Talk to our talented potters about how they harness earth, air, water, and fire to create all things whimsical, serious, lighthearted and beautiful. Shop in their galleries. Or take a class and throw a vessel of your own as a keepsake of your time in our Sullivan Catskills.
