SULLIVAN CATSKILLS

WE HATCHED A PLAN.

It was 2019, the 50th Anniversary of Woodstock, which took place here. How to celebrate? The answer was right on our office wall, standing on one leg, staring us in the face. What if we had a flock of Doves...just like the one in the iconic Woodstock poster...only bigger...and weatherproof... fifty of them, all over the place, for visitors to see... in colorful tribute to all that the Sullivan Catskills has to offer!

THE DOVE OF LOVE.

It goes without saying that if you have at least two doves, there will be more. Nature took its course, and now the Sullivan Catskills Dove Trail is up to seventy-eight and counting. They are so popular there is even merch: posters, shirts, and guide maps. Most importantly, they are guideposts as you Stay with Us, enjoy our Arts & Culture, savor all that is Catskill-icious, and Explore everything from wine classes to golf to skiing.

THE DOVE OF RENEWAL.

Is your idea of recharging hooking one that was "that big!?" A stroll, hike, or trek? Splashing in the lake, the river, or the waterpark? A bagel for breakfast, cedar plank trout for lunch, and seven courses for dinner? A concert, a craft, or a class? Mellowing with a local beer, cider, wine, or spirit? Sleeping in a sack under the stars, snuggling under the covers in a four-poster, or waking in a covered wagon? Follow the Doves to find your favorite.

THE DOVE OF WELCOME.

Our Doves welcome you to the Sullivan Catskills. Whether you're here for a day, a weekend, or an extended stay, they are our ambassadors, inviting you to reconnect, relax, and rejuvenate.

Follow the trail; they will teach you to soar.

Your Sullivan Catskills experience doesn't stop when the sun goes down. At the end of your drive, settle into an authentic ranch experience that would make Beth Dutton jealous — feed donuts to the cattle. Join the doves in the branches in a complete, two-story tree house with all the comforts of home. Camp or RV on the banks of the river and fish for breakfast. The waterpark and casino both have hotels so you can dry off or cash out and head right upstairs. Resorts, spas, boutiques, wherever you want to lay your head, you'll find a great bed.

BETHEL WOODS CENTER FOR THE ARTS

You'd be right to listen to the right side of your brain and imagine all the creativity and emotion you'll find in our Sullivan Catskills. That hemisphere appreciates the pitch, melody, harmony, and beat of our music, from classical quartets to classic rock. It also gets the colors, patterns, images, and symbols of our pottery, painting, and sculpture. Just think about that combination for dance and theatre. Now, that's smart thinking.

Historic Delaware & Hudson Canal remains: Lock, waste weir. Explore life on the canal. Hike towpath, visit Interpretive Center with bookstore, restrooms.

Our Sullivan Catskills cuisine is so fresh, unique, and tasty that we had to invent a name for it: Catskill-icious. New York City can claim to have the best bagels— we beg to differ and challenge them to a cream cheese duel at the next annual Bagelfest. Think locally and dine globally. We have award-winning BBQ, an Alsatian bistro, and creative Korean. For beverages to complement your meal, there's a brewery with a bank vault, a distillery that employs bees, and a winery next to a wildlife area with a cave. Different and delicious? No, Catkill-icious.

The Wild, Wild West is in the East

This story begins with a cowboy from New Jersey who became a rodeo champion and then built a destination, custom, rustic home community on a lake in the Sullivan Catskills. He always felt a connection to nature and living things—wood, stone, pastures, and streams— “Sometimes you just need to sit and watch the cattle.” He wanted to share the real ranch experience with a luxury twist, and Driftwood Ranch was born. You won’t find any dudes—just working cowhands. And some of the most beautiful and unique accommodations anywhere. Ride, walk, explore, feed donuts to the longhorns, or just sit and watch them.

The Bird of Paradise is a Dove

Doves are universal symbols of peace, love, and freedom. The Sullivan Catskills Dove Trail celebrates the peace of our natural beauty, love for adventure and experience, and freedom to enjoy fresh air, music, art, sports, exploration, and the earth’s bounty. There are 78 doves on the trail, and we don’t want any of them to be lonesome. Come for a visit; they’ll keep a bird’s eye out for you as you take wing.

There's been much exploring since the Sullivan Catskills were named New France in 1524. Today, you'll discover great skiing, hiking and biking. In 1743, Neversink was settled. Now, you'll find great hunting, fishing, and eagle spotting. It was 1801 when a road was chartered from Newburgh to Cocheton, 1848 when the railroad came, and 1969 when Woodstock established some new territory. It's time to expand your boundaries with wellness, yoga, agritourism, and extreme adventure. Zipline, anyone?

Sullivan County Fishing Lakes, Reservoirs & Streams Guide

Call of the Wild

Sullivan County's thick forests and thousands of miles of streams and lakes have made it a hunting and fishing paradise for generations. The tradition continues...

Hunting

Enjoy hunting in-season for deer, bear, turkey, and small game on public and private lands. The county also offers contests and the services of licensed guides. You will need a permit in all cases. Hours are generally sunrise to sunset. For Opening Day information visit dec.ny.gov/outdoor.

Gone Fishing

Sullivan County offers five great reasons to rise and shine: trout, bass, shad, perch and pickerel. The trout are so plentiful in our famous Willowemoc and Beaverkill, we're the fly-fishing capital of the east. Be here for the annual traditional opening of trout season in early April held at Junction Pool, Roscoe-Trout Town U.S.A. For another angle, cast your lure in the scenic Delaware or in dozens of lakes and streams. Plus, you'll find ice-fishing every winter.

Shad Fishing

Every spring, a contingent of Delaware River anglers eagerly await the arrival of the annual spawning of American shad. The shad spends most of its life in the Atlantic Ocean until the age of three to five-years and weighs over five pounds. They then return to the Delaware River system, where they were born to spawn themselves. The peak of the shad run is generally in May, with adult shad present in the river through June and even into late July in some years.

Spotting Eagles in Winter

The Sullivan Catskills is the second largest nesting ground in the United States for American Bald Eagles. Sightings of these beautiful creatures are most prominent along the Bashkill or National Park's Upper Wild and Scenic Delaware Rivers. They live near water, so they can readily access fish — their primary source of food. They are easier to spot than you may think! Their white feathered heads and prominent wing span are what set these majestic animals apart from other birds. Use binoculars or a spotting scope for a closer look. For more information about eagles in the Sullivan Catskills, call the Delaware Highlands Conservancy at 845-583-1010 or the National Park Service, Upper Delaware Scenic and Recreational River, at 570-729-7134. Online visit DelawareHighlands.org/ Eagles or FindYourPark.com.
